Dear parents/guardians:

As the holiday season quickly approaches, many of us begin planning our traveling, baking, decorating, and gift-giving. At the same time, Caseville's Publications class continues to work diligently to assemble the 2011-2012 yearbook.

We ask that you consider Yearbook Forever, our publication company, as you begin your holiday shopping. Our website, <http://www.yearbookforever.com>, now has an extensive collection of school merchandise available to all Caseville supporters. The collection includes tee shirts, polos, sweatshirts, and shorts, along with cozy outerwear, baseball caps, backpacks and other accessories. You can even outfit the whole family in fan gear with the wide range of colors, writing, symbols, and sizes—so you design your own attire! Simply enter "Caseville" into the search engine on <http://www.yearbookforever.com>, and select Caseville High School to view our school store.

The fundraising (10%) comes back to our class to help pay for our costs of yearbook production. This yearbook, the ultimate showcase of our hard work, can also be ordered on the website. For the holidays, we are extending a sale: the yearbooks will be only $35.00 until December 30th.

We appreciate your consideration of our publications class as you begin shopping for your loved ones.

Thank you,
